Job Description:

FACULTY POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT IN NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES

The Native American Studies Program at Dartmouth College invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor (at either entry or advanced level), to begin July 2010.

The successful candidate will have the Ph.D. in hand by the time of appointment and will complement the Program's existing research strengths and course offerings.

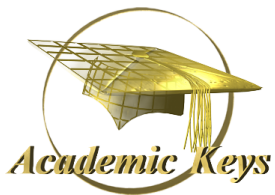

We invite candidates whose principal area of research and scholarship is in Native American Studies (or comparable concentration), with particular expertise in Environmental Studies and Sustainability.

Candidates should demonstrate a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching and active programs of research and publication.

Application materials must include letters of application, CVs, three letters of reference and writing samples.

Applications should be directed to:
