The art history program consists of seven tenured/tenure-track faculty members and two lecturers who work with approximately 70 undergraduate art history majors and 10 Master's degree students. Art history faculty also teach roughly 1,500 students from across the university each semester. In addition to its undergraduate and graduate degrees, the program also offers post-baccalaureate certification in art museum education. Additional information about the program and faculty areas can be found at <http://art.unt.edu/art-history.html>.
