About the University

United Arab Emirates University (UAEU) is the oldest university in the United Arab Emirates - founded in 1976 - and has a clear mission to maintain and enhance its high reputation in the country, the region and beyond as "The University of the Future".

With a faculty of more than 930 and 13,000 students from 64 countries, UAEU is internationally-oriented with a strong emphasis on social impact and external collaboration in both its education and research. The University offers 52 Bachelors' degree programs and 37 Masters' programs as well as a Doctorate of Medicine (MD), Doctorate of Business Administration (DBA) and a number of other PhD programs. It was recently recognized in the QS World Rankings as among the top 300 universities in the world and the 27th best 'Young University' globally.

Our faculty and students work in close collaboration with internal and external parties to solve national and global social challenges. Our academic community is inspired by the dynamism and cosmopolitanism of the UAE, its values of tolerance and its rapid development as an internationally-recognized center of innovation, creativity and entrepreneurship.

The College and Department

The Department of Languages and Literature, CHSS is housed in a state-of-the-art facility on Maqam campus offering undergraduate and graduate programs. The Department is interdisciplinary, with 14 full-time faculty members and 11 instructors. For additional information about the Department and our programs, please see the following web site:

(https://chss.uaeu.ac.ae/en/departments/languages_literature/about.shtml)

With more than 3,000 students and approximately 150 faculty members, CHSS is the largest of the nine colleges that make up the UAE University. The College has a distinct identity, informed by a rich academic tradition, a firm commitment to heritage and innovation, and a dedication to serve our community and the nation.

CHSS recently implemented a major restructuring of its departments, intended to facilitate program innovation and opportunities for increased interdisciplinary research. This is part of larger suite of planned changes involving not only the reorganization of departments, but the provision of a range of new, innovative, interdisciplinary academic programs. The departmental structure of CHSS is as follows:

- Arabic Language and Literature
- Cognitive Sciences
- Geography and Urban Sustainability
- Government and Society
- Languages and Literature
- Media and Creative Industries
