Position description

The Department of Ethnic Studies at the University of California, Berkeley invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in Chicana/Latina Studies at the rank of assistant professor.

We encourage applications from scholars that take intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches to research and teaching. The area of specialty is open to scholars of Latino Studies broadly defined. We especially encourage applications from candidates whose areas of expertise include Central American Studies, as well as Afro Latina studies, Indigenous Latina Studies, Latina Inequalities, and Latina Environmental Studies, among other areas.

The successful applicant will be expected to maintain an active research agenda, teach introductory, upper- division, and graduate courses, and undertake service to the department, campus, and university.

In the Department of Ethnic Studies and the Division of Social Sciences, we recognize the intrinsic relationship between diversity and excellence in all our endeavors and embrace open and equitable access to opportunities for learning and development as our obligation and goal. We seek candidates who demonstrate a commitment to advancing diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging through their research, teaching, and/or service. Read our DEIB statement from the Faculty of Ethnic Studies at the following Website: [<https://ethnicstudies.berkeley.edu/about/mission/>]

Our Department is committed to upholding the university's principles of community so that every individual can be successful in a healthy, welcoming, and safe environment. We are committed to addressing the family needs of faculty, including dual career couples and single parents. We are also interested in individuals who have had nontraditional career paths, who have taken time off for personal reasons (e.g., caretaking or disability), or who have achieved excellence in careers outside academe (e.g., in the arts, community organizing, or professional service). For information about potential relocation to Berkeley, or career needs of accompanying partners and spouses, please visit: [<http://ofew.berkeley.edu/new-faculty>]

The University of California is committed to creating and maintaining a community dedicated to the advancement, application, and transmission of knowledge and creative endeavors through academic excellence, where all individuals who participate in University programs and activities can work and learn together in a safe and secure environment, free of violence, harassment, discrimination, exploitation, or intimidation. Consistent with this commitment, UC Berkeley requires all applicants for Senate faculty positions to complete, sign, and upload an Authorization of Information Release form into AP Recruit as part of their application. If an applicant does not include the signed authorization, the application will be considered incomplete, and as with any incomplete application, will not receive further consideration. Although all applicants for faculty recruitments must complete the entire application, applicants will only be subject to reference checks if and when they are selected as the candidate to whom the hiring unit would like to extend a formal offer.
