Worcester Polytechnic Institute - WPI

JOB DESCRIPTION SUMMARY

The Assistant Director for Religion/Spiritual Life & Educational in the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Multicultural Education (ODIME) is primarily responsible for the coordination, implementation, and assessment of campus spiritual life programs and religious observations. This position shall provide leadership and oversee all aspects of the Collegiate Religious Center (CRC) and its functions, supervise the Campus Chaplains, and support student organizations of faith in engaging with the broader Worcester religious and spiritual community. This position may be called upon to consult with campus partners in relation to accommodating students with specific religious and spiritual needs or in response to campus/community crisis. This position will work collaboratively with the Director and the ODIME team to advance the mission of the ODIME to foster an inclusive campus community which respects, honors, and celebrates diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging (DEIB) in all its dimensions. This mission is consistent with WPI's strategic plan by creating a culture of inclusion, belonging, well-being, and respect that draws diverse minds and provides the support necessary for all to thrive. The Assistant Director for Religion and Spiritual Life is a staff member in the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Multicultural Education (ODIME) and reports directly to the Director of Multicultural Education and Community Engagement.

WPI is passionate about creating an inclusive workplace that promotes and values diversity. Candidates with demonstrated ability to incorporate diverse perspectives and experiences in fostering a positive student and working environment for all are encouraged to apply.

This is an on-site position with potential for some hybrid work. The salary range for this position is $55,400 - $67,900, depending on experience.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Responsibilities:

Administration/Leadership

- Lead and oversee all aspects in the planning, coordination, execution, and assessment of the Collegiate Religious Center (CRC) programs, services, events, and functions.
- Lead and supervise the Campus Chaplains and advise and support the religious/spiritual life advisors both internal and external to the WPI community. Actively recruit and select new Campus Chaplains to serve as active partners within the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Multicultural Education.
