The University at Buffalo seeks to hire a Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) coordinator who will represent University at Buffalo as the primary point of contact for NAGPRA implementation.

This individual will help ensure that UB is in compliance with NAGPRA legislation as revised in January 2024 by having a working understanding of the regulations to help UB interpret and implement the law. The NAGPRA Coordinator will report to a UB NAGPRA Implementation Committee and Indigenous Nations. This position will be a two-year appointment.

The successful candidate will possess the following:

- Ability to plan, manage, and lead projects and establish strong collaborative relationships with Tribal Nations and campus partners.
- Follow the federally established process to track and analyze information, as well as prepare NAGPRA reports.
- Maintain detailed records relating to project management with frequent database updates and the preparation of formal reports for committee, Nations and agency review.
- Coordinate teams, communicate clearly in verbal, written and digital forms, and have excellent interpersonal and collaboration skills.
- Must be willing to learn and actively listen with a commitment to diversity, openness, flexibility, integrity, and sensitivity to the sovereignty of Indigenous Nations and the needs of communities.

Outstanding Benefits Package

Working at UB comes with benefits that exceed salary alone. There are personal rewards including comprehensive health and retirement plan options. We also focus on creating and sustaining a healthy mix of work, personal and academic pursuit – all in an effort to support your work-life effectiveness. We support your growth and development through our career coaching and training department and we qualify as a public service loan forgiveness organization.
