COURSE DESCRIPTION: Beginning Italian 1. An introduction to the fundamentals of the Italian language; this course is for true beginners. Students will learn basic grammatical structures and develop proficiency in speaking and listening. They will learn to communicate at a novice-high conversational level. Students will also complete the course with the ability to identify unique features of Italian cultures. The course will be conducted almost entirely in Italian. NOTE: Does not count for Humanities credit.

Under this appointment, your responsibilities will include preparing and maintaining course syllabus, teaching assigned classes, attending all class sessions, grading and providing appropriate feedback to students, scheduling office hours, completing all assessments requirements, and attending at least one orientation meeting. You will also be required to provide your students and the School of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences office with a comprehensive course syllabus before the start of the semester. The syllabus should include all course requirements, grading policy, assignments, expected exams and required reading. You will provide us with your textbook order in-time for materials to arrive well in advance of the first week of classes. Finally, you will be required to adhere to the policies as stated in the HASS faculty handbook.

Qualifications: Advanced degree in Italian Language or other applicable degree. Experience teaching at the University level required.

On-line applications required at <https://www.stevens.edu/hr/careers-at-stevens>

Positions will remain open until filled.

Applicants should be sure to include a cover letter, current c.v., statement of teaching philosophy, samples or link to work or portfolio (if applicable), and names and addresses of three references. Please combine all documents into a single PDF file prior to submission.
