Job Description

The Department of Studies in Race, Colonialism, and Diaspora (RCD) at Tufts University is seeking a part-time Lecturer to teach between one and four courses during the 2025-2026 academic year. Courses may include courses in Africana Studies, Latinx/Latin American Studies, Native American & Indigenous Studies as well as transnational courses treating colonialism and diaspora.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate a commitment to transformative pedagogy and the ability to teach introductory and upper-level courses that align with the department's mission to critically examine race, colonialism, and diaspora across local and global contexts. Applicants with relational expertise that can teach at the intersections of these interrelated fields and offer comparative upper-level courses in
