Job Description

Job Description Summary

The Department of English at Auburn University anticipates making multiple Lecturer appointments for the 2025-2026 academic year, with a starting date of August 16, 2025. These are nine-month, full-time, non-tenurable teaching appointments that may be renewed annually by mutual agreement, based on the availability of funds, the need for services, and satisfactory performance. The salary is $40,000. The Department anticipates continuing employment in these positions, with the possibility of promotion to Senior Lecturer. Lecturers have primary responsibilities in teaching and secondary responsibilities in service and instructional leadership. The expected teaching load is 4/4; assignments typically include first-year composition, with departmental needs determining the courses taught each semester. Lecturers are normally eligible for summer teaching, if available.
